

Addressing the Diverse Health Care Needs of the Hospitality Industry

UnitedHealthcare offers exclusive health care pricing and solutions for NRA/CRA members through the hospitality associations alliance program.

In a year of new opportunities, the National Restaurant Association (NRA) and the Colorado Restaurant Association (CRA) continue to work with UnitedHealthcare in a strategic alliance to help address the diverse health care needs of the hospitality industry. Through the hospitality associations alliance program, UnitedHealthcare offers something for every size NRA/CRA member business – including small, midsize and large employers.

4 ways NRA/CRA member businesses can access UnitedHealthcare’s exclusive offerings:

- 1. COMING SOON for small businesses: New NRA Health Benefits Association Plan option for fully insured hospitality groups with 2-99 eligible employees
- 2. For businesses with 101 or more employees: Up to a 5 percent discount on manual medical rates for fully insured groups with 101 or more eligible employees
- 3. For large self-funded businesses: An annual invoice credit of up to 5 percent on administrative fees for new ASO medical products for self-funded groups with 100 or more eligible employees
- 4. For businesses of all sizes: Up to a 5 percent discount on specialty benefits products (dental, vision, life, disability, accident and critical illness) for fully insured groups – in addition to all other discounts including bundling benefits programs

New NRA Association Plan Option for Small Employers

A new NRA Health Benefits Association Plan will be available soon to quote as an option for NRA/CRA hospitality member groups. The NRA Association Plan is a new health benefits solution insured and serviced by UnitedHealthcare and focused on small employers with 2-99 eligible employees. This solution can offer NRA/CRA members some of the same advantages of large employers regarding more health plan designs for product and potential pricing flexibility. The NRA Association Plan is just one more way for hospitality businesses to access UnitedHealthcare's solutions for NRA/CRA members. Watch for more details in the coming months.

Health Care Reform Guidance and Solutions

Amid the ever-changing health care regulatory environment, UnitedHealthcare also helps provide NRA/CRA members with the latest health reform facts, guidance and solutions to navigate potential changes and opportunities. One of its main goals is to offer easier access to cost-effective health care coverage and related products and services to NRA/CRA members, while helping them comply with state and federal regulations.

Wellness Programs and Services

UnitedHealthcare has a variety of wellness programs and services aimed at Helping people live healthier lives®. Several clinical and wellness programs are embedded with most medical plans — such as decision support, care management, complex-condition management and health improvement programs. Plus, all members receive access to a member website that includes dozens of tools and resources to help them understand, improve and maintain their health.
